

Wild for Life Foundation Equine Facilities and Activities Agreement

General Code of Ethics

As a Participant in Wild for Life Foundation (WFLF) activities, your conduct and interaction with other WFLF Participants and the public is expected to always be professional and courteous.

By participating whether as a volunteer or as a compensated entity, you are making a commitment to WFLF, its Mission, its board, staff and associates, and its animals to carry out, to the best of your abilities, the tasks you have pledged to perform.

This General Code of Ethics clarifies the expectations and principals for Wild for Life Foundation participants, staff and associates. Should any Participant display unprofessional, dishonest or disrespectful behavior or exhibit a lack of self discipline, that person will be asked to leave the premises.

Such behavior could be grounds for termination of staff or associate status.

As a Participant in Wild for Life Foundation Equine Facility Activities, I _____ pledge to:

Respect

- Respect others even though I may not agree with them
- Display courtesy, sensitivity, consideration and compassion for people and animals
- Recognize the authority of WFLF Board and Staff Members and Associates

Safety

- Keep safety at the forefront of all activities
- Follow WFLF rules, policies and procedures
- Respect and use equipment and supplies as they are intended
- Report all injuries (human and animal) immediately to a WFLF Staff person

Quality

- Perform all tasks to the best of my ability
- Ask for help when needed
- Recognize training and respect of WFLF Policies is essential to maintain safe shelter facility practices

Self Discipline
